Members of the Boards and Commissions are appointed by the City Council to serve four-year terms and must be qualified voters as well as residents of the City of Whittier. The members serve without compensation and may be removed from office by three affirmative votes of the City Council.

Statement of Economic Interests

The City has adopted a conflict of interest code which tailors the disclosure requirements for each position in the City to the types of governmental decisions a person holding that position would make. Members of boards and commissions noted below are required to disclose their personal financial interests on a form called a "Statement of Economic Interests" (Form 700). The form must be filed within 30-days of assuming office, annually in January, and within 30-days after leaving office. Filed forms are public documents that must be made available to anyone who requests them.

Ethics Training

Members of the City's boards and commissions listed below are required to attend ethics training within one year of assuming office, and every two years thereafter, as mandated by Assembly Bill No. 1234, which requires that all local agencies that provide compensation, salary, or stipend to, or reimburse the expenses of, members of a legislative body must provide ethics training to local agency officials. The term "legislative body" includes not only the governing body of a local agency, but also a commission, committee, board, or other body of a local agency, whether permanent or temporary, decision-making or advisory.
