

Kathryn Marshall
City Clerk-Treasurer

Kathryn was appointed City Clerk-Treasurer in 1995 after serving as the assistant director for almost five years. Prior to that, Kathryn worked for the cities of Pasadena, Lakewood, and Bellflower providing city clerk, personnel or community development program services since 1978.

Kathryn is Whittier's election official, legislative officer, Political Reform Act filing officer, tax collector, and cash manager. She assists all departments with Brown Act (Open Meeting Act) compliance, and is responsible for the preservation of City and associated agencies' official records and making those records available to the public. Recent projects include on-line utility payments, implementation of a new City website, and providing live and archived streaming video of City Council and Planning Commission meetings.

Kathryn holds a BS degree in applied management from Azusa Pacific University. She is a member of the Association of Public Treasurers of the United States and Canada and the International Institute of Municipal Clerks (IIMC) and was the first of IIMC's more than 10,000 members to attain the Master Municipal Clerk designation evidencing a commitment to professional education.
