Hello,

As a homeowner in the new Groves complex, and a lover of the upwards movement that Whittier is making, I believe it's a very bad idea to have a Victory Outreach church built across the street on the corner of Sorensen & Whittier. There should be an Asian market, or equivalent commerce establishment placed there.

A church, especially ones assisting former gang members and former drug addicts, will only decrease the value of the homes in the surrounding area. We all DID NOT sign up for that.

Have them locate another building or let them keep doing business in their present location. Whittier Blvd is the main thoroughfare through the city. Do we really want to add another church as a gateway to our community? One that will bring parking issues while causing nearby businesses and neighbors to worry?

Thank you for your time and consideration,

David and Veronica Bernal
