Just heard the news. Not happy. Not pleased. I've lived in East Whittier for over 35 years.

What's happening to our beautiful quaint city? This is not Whittier. My heart is broken to see this development being dumped in our family neighborhood.

I know this owner will end up making a lot of money off of this project with no consideration for us neighbors.

Our once great city is being destroyed, by overdevelopment. I truly hope you all reconsider signing off on this one. I know you wouldn't want it in your neighborhood.
